

THE NORTH CAROLINA NATIONAL ESTUARINE RESEARCH RESERVE'S COASTAL TRAINING PROGRAM PRESENTS:

Low Impact Development Basics for Water Quality Protection

Wednesday, September 16 – 8:45am - 12:45pm

NC Cooperative Extension, Onslow County

4024 Richlands Hwy.
Jacksonville, NC 28540

Agenda

- 8:15am      Registration
- 8:45am      Welcome and Introduction
- 8:50am      The Land Use - Water Quality Connection – Whitney Jenkins, NC Coastal Reserve
- 9:15am      The North Carolina Watershed Game
- 9:40am      Break
- 9:50am      Low Impact Development (LID) Basics – Whitney Jenkins, NC Coastal Reserve
- 10:15am     LID Permitting – Mike Randall, NC Division of Energy, Mineral, and Land Resources
- 10:50am     Break
- 11:00am     LID in Onslow County – Pat Donovan-Potts, City of Jacksonville
- 11:35pm     Stormwater Research in the Coastal Plain – Erin Carey, North Carolina State University's Stormwater Engineering Group
- 12:10pm     Onslow County Stormwater Management Walking Tour – Diana Rashash, N.C. Cooperative Extension Service
- 12:45pm     Adjourn

The N.C. National Estuarine Research Reserve is a partnership between the N.C. Division of Coastal Management & the National Oceanic Atmospheric Administration

